
THE GNLU LAW REVIEW

Call for Papers

The GNLU Law Review (TGLR) is pleased to announce the call for papers for its Volume 4, Issue 1. The word limit for Articles is 7000 words excluding footnotes. The word limit for Notes and Comments is 4000 words excluding footnotes. Co-authorship to a maximum of two authors is permitted. The citation should be strictly in accordance with the Chicago Manual of Style.

Authors are strongly encouraged to submit the manuscripts electronically by emailing a copy in Microsoft Word format to tglr@gnlu.ac.in strictly in accordance with the Editorial Policy and Submission Guidelines available at http://www.gnlu.ac.in/subm_gline_epolicy.pdf. TGLR also accepts submissions through the ExpressO online submission system, available at <http://www.law.bepress.com/expresso> and also through LexOpus available at <https://lawlib.wlu.edu/lexopus/index.aspx>.

Deadline for submissions is August 12 , 2011.

EDITORIAL ADVISORY BOARD

Justice P.N. Bhagwati

Former Chief Justice of India

Justice Mohit S. Shah

Chief Justice, Bombay High Court

Justice R.K. Abichandani

Former Judge, High Court of Gujarat &
Former President, CESTAT, New Delhi

Dr. Christopher Heath

Member of the Board of Appeals,
European Patent Office

K.K. Venugopal

Senior Advocate, Supreme Court of India

Prof. (Dr.) Heinz Goddar

European Patent and Trademark Attorney
Boehmert & Boehmert, Munich, Germany

Prathiba Singh

Singh & Singh Advocates, New Delhi, India

Prof. (Dr.) V. Vijayakumar

Vice Chancellor, The Tamil Nadu Dr.
Ambedkar University

Prof. Aanselm Kamperman Sanders

Director, European Law School, Law and Language Studies
Universiteit Maastricht

Dr. V.K. Unni

Faculty, Public Policy & Management Group,
Indian Institute of Management, Kolkata

Rostam Josef Neuwirth

Assistant Professor Faculty of Law
Universidade De Macau

The GNLU Law Review is the flagship review of the Gujarat National Law University, Gandhinagar, India. The Review is a general student-edited law review published biannually.

The GNLU Law Review, in pursuit of its intent to act as a forum for the promotion of an objective study of the Indian legal system, encourages the contribution of Articles, Notes and Comments on the Indian legal and judicial system from academia, practitioners, policy makers and students of law. It also seeks to include comparative study of the Indian legal system with foreign jurisdictions. Submissions on emerging international legal issues are also encouraged.